

Deal Hunters on Both Sides of the Border Eye Canadian Black Friday Prices

London Drugs offers unprecedented Black Friday deals and the “lowest price of the year” on many items

NOVEMBER 22, 2016, RICHMOND, B.C. – An increasing number of Canadian consumers have shifted their holiday spending to take advantage of Black Friday promotions. And this year Canadians can expect to find the best deals locally. The slumping loonie against the U.S. dollar has largely eliminated the appeal of travelling stateside to shop especially since local retailers have adopted the practice of offering deep discounts on Black Friday.

Canadian retailer London Drugs is offering some of the lowest prices of the year and door crasher sales on many items, paying close attention to competitor offers in the U.S. and in Canada to ensure it matches or beats popular Black Friday deals.

Last year, Statistics Canada reported retail spending in Canada jumped in November attributing part of the increase to Black Friday-related spending. At the same time total travel from the U.S. to Canada rose 11 per cent over the previous year with arrivals by car up almost 15 per cent.
